CONTRIBUTOR INFORMATION

Thank you for joining our team of regular contributing writers on PrimeParentsClub.com. Not only will you get a chance to spotlight your work, websites, and businesses, but you are also part of a site that is rapidly growing to be the "go-to" site for parents in their prime, ages 35 and up.

Our Contributors:

- Write 2 to 4+ original, unpublished articles per month specific to your assigned category. ("Original" and "Unpublished" meaning the content hasn't been written and published previously—by you or anyone else—and shared on your site or any other site.)
- Receive a regular bio page in the Contributor area.
- Get a short bio after each article.
- Get a "Regular Contributor" badge for your site that links to your work on PrimeParentsClub.com.
- Receive other contributor perks (as detailed below).

As soon as possible, please provide:

- Your first and last name as you want it to appear in your bio.
- A bio pic. We just want something to connect the reader to the regular contributor whenever they see them. You can also send any additional pics/logos you would like included in your extended bio (company logo, kids, pets, spouse, etc.)
- A short bio for the end of your article: 1-3 sentences about you.
- An extended bio for the Contributor's Page--around 75-100+ words that reveals more about your life, education, your site, how you started writing, your family, or anything else you would like to share. You can include 3-5 link backs to whatever you want (even affiliate links).
- The number of articles you plan on writing each month and a rough estimate of the date. Each month, we complete an editorial calendar with the posts our contributors will submit. This helps us understand where we need to fill in posts from guest bloggers, etc.

Unless you are working on a specific assignment or holiday post, you do not need to tell us your post topics one month in advance. Instead, we just need to know the frequency. For example, "I will send posts on the 1st, 15th and 20th of next month.

Each month on or around the 25th, you will receive an editorial update email that will discuss upcoming holidays, needs for posts, announce new contests, etc. for the next month.

To Submit Posts

PrimeParentsClub.com uses an online post submission option. Please follow these steps to submit your posts:

1. Visit http://www.primeparentsclub.com/guest-post
2. Create an account with your full name as First Name Last Name. (Example: Jane Doe). This is how your author name will appear on your posts.
3. Visit your email for the password.
4. Go back to http://www.primeparentsclub.com/guest-post. NOTE: If you follow the link from your email, it will take you to the forum area instead of the guest post area.
5. Enter your login and password.
6. You will be taken to your profile page. Update your information.
7. Visit http://www.primeparentsclub.com/guest-post. You should now be logged in.
8. Type in your post title and copy and paste your post text into the body. NOTE: Please edit and format your posts. You are not uploading a document.
9. When ready, enter the verification code and click "Publish."
10. Your post is now submitted for review and editing. It does not publish immediately on the site, but is submitted in draft mode for editing. You will receive an email once your post has been published.

TIPS

- Include your Twitter and (business) Facebook accounts in your bios. The more ways that people can find you, the better for your work!
- Due to new Google SEO changes, please do not include an outbound link in the first quarter (roughly 250 words) of your article.
- Promote your work on your own Facebook and Twitter accounts and websites.
- Get to know the other contributors at http://www.PrimeParentsClub.com/category/contributors/. You have a built-in network to support, retweet, Facebook "like" your stuff.
- Write more articles on PrimeParentsClub to help your own site's SEO (search engine optimization). Your name, your site's name and your site are tagged in every post you write for PrimeParentsClub. This helps your website's SEO.

- Share your PPC articles on your FB, Twitter, GooglePlus and StumbleUpon to increase your exposure as well as ours.

- Join our pages/twitter AND invite your friends to join P2C Facebook (www.facebook/PrimeParentsClub) and Twitter (@PrimeParentClub – please note no "S" on parents). The more followers, the larger opportunity for advertising and working toward paid Contributors.

- If you have friends that would like to guest blog on PrimeParentsClub (guest bloggers are different from contributors in that they contribute one or two articles, do not write regularly scheduled posts, and are not eligible for Contributor Perks), please put them in touch with me. Also, if you know someone who might be open to being a regular contributor, let me know.

- If you have news, updates, contests, etc. going on your site/in your life, please let us know so that we can help market it or share it!

CONTRIBUTOR PERKS

- Free Home Page Advertising: Each month, we randomly draw from the pool of contributors to get ONE MONTH of FREE SIDEBAR ADVERTISING on PrimeParentsClub.com that links to your site. If you're chosen for the advertising, please provide a 125x125 ad (logo, text, picture, however you want to represent your site). We will draw a new winner each month (previous month's winner not eligible).

- Advertising Referral Revenue Program: Starting in March 2011, we added a new referral program. If you refer an advertiser (or advertisers) to PrimeParentsClub who signs up for one of our advertising programs, you get 50% of the revenue for the first month and then 25% FOR EACH MONTH THEY STAY ON AFTER. (This probably isn't going to make you rich, but depending on the ad program they choose/the term of commitment, it could be a little extra cash in your pocket. Just put the potential advertiser in touch with jwilson@PrimeParentsClub.com and tell them to use your name as a referral.)

- Contributor Contests: We're working on new contributor contests. The information will be available soon.

FAQs

Is this a paid position? No, regular contributors do not currently receive payment. However, they are eligible for the Contributor Perks as posted in this document.

If I have an article topic that I want to write, but it is out of my 'assigned category', can I still write it? Yes. We give regular contributors the leeway to provide content that they see fit.

Can I interview someone and write an interview article for Prime Parents Club? YES. If you need a PrimeParentsClub.com email address, please let me know.

Do I have to submit photographs with my articles? No. We will find the appropriate image for your article. However, if you have a photograph or image you want to submit, you must own the rights to the photo or be using a completely royalty-free and copyright-free image. Please upload the photo from the same area where you upload your posts. (You will not be able to see the photo after upload, but it sends it directly into the image library.) If you have a photo please indicate where you would like it inserted with [insert photo here].

Can I include an affiliate link in my article? We don't mind if you do this on occasion. For example, if you are an Amazon affiliate and are referencing a specific book, you can include it in your article as an affiliate link after the first 250 words.

Can I post the article on my site, too? No. However, you may include a few "leader" sentences (or a paragraph) on your site that links over to your article on PrimeParentsClub.com.
